

Christmas Concerts

A number of activities were held during the month of December by the staff and students of St. Joseph Paola to celebrate the Christmas Festivities.

All the classes prepared and held a Christmas play. The concerts were held for students and parents were also invited for a number of classes.

