

Resources for the linguistic development
of the students - Jan 2014

More resources were acquired by the school for the linguistic development of the students. Recently a number of books were acquired and presented to the Complementary teacher Ms. M'Ann Laspina to use during support lessons.

The Curia Literacy team also presented the school with further resources to be used during the English lessons.

